

Important: Please carefully read the terms and conditions of this License Agreement ("Agreement") before clicking "Accept". By ticking the "Accept" box, you, as an individual, or on behalf of the company or institution set forth on the order form of which this Agreement is a part ("Licensee") are agreeing to these terms and Appando, itself and on behalf of its subsidiaries ("Licensor") will authorize users authorized hereunder to use Takemote™ as selected on the order form ("Software"). If you are accepting these terms on behalf of another person or company, you represent and warrant that you have full authority to bind that person or company to these terms.

1. License Grant

1.1 The company Appando, incorporated under the laws of the Principality of Andorra, having its seat at El Forn, Canillo, Andorra registered before the Companies Register of Principality of Andorra, hereinafter referred to as "Licensor".

In exchange for the compliance with all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Licensor grants Licensee a nonassignable, nontransferable and nonexclusive license to use the Software for free and any related user documentation.

The license is installed for one desktop or personal computer only ("Device"), identified during the activation process. Software can be downloaded and activation code will be sent by email (sales@wezarp.com) in exchange of the PC-ID code. Upgrades are free of charge.

1.2 Licensee may not (a) use the Software for the benefit of a third party in exchange for compensation; (b) use the Software in application or data service provision, outsourcing, time-sharing, data or information technology management, or other similar arrangements; (c) use the Software to process third party data; or (d) allow any party other than Users to use, edit, modify, or otherwise access the Software, or to perform free form programming with the Software.

1.3 The Software shall be accessed only by (a) Licensee, including its employees and on site contractors, if applicable ("Users") while doing work in the country designated on the order form ("Territory") and solely for Licensee, and (b) on a limited basis by third parties as herein specified.

1.4 The Software operates with a product authorization code which is a component of the Software that allows the Software to operate for its applicable identified device. Licensor is not required to provide the product authorization code if Licensee is in breach of this Agreement or if all undisputed amounts due under this Agreement are not paid. Licensor is not liable for damages caused by the resulting Software interruption. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that the Product Authorization Code is Licensor's confidential and proprietary information. This Agreement will also terminate if Licensee fails to comply with any term or condition of this Agreement. Licensee agrees upon such termination to remove and destroy all copies of the Software within three months after termination of the license period.

2. Intellectual Property Right

2.1 The Software is copyrighted and licensed but not sold to Licensee who shall not acquire any right, title or interest. Title to the Software and all other rights remain with Licensor as the legitimate owner at all times.

2.2 Source code from which the Software object code is derived ("Source Code") is a Licensor trade secret. Neither Licensee nor any other User shall reverse engineer, reverse assemble or decompile the Software or in any way attempt to recreate the Source Code.

3. Technical Support

3.1 The software licensed is for use on desktop or portable computers equipped to use Microsoft Windows applications. Licensee's workstations shall be running Windows Vista, Windows 7 or Windows 8. It shall possess at least 2048 MB of RAM memory and 300 MB free hard disk space. It must also have a fully working connection to Internet.

3.2 During the term of the Software license, Licensor will use reasonable efforts, by email, to help Licensee solve specific problems installing or using the Software.

It may not be possible for Licensor to solve all problems or correct all errors in the Software. From time to time, Licensor may make available, and Licensee agrees to use reasonable efforts to install, new releases, updates and corrective code. During ongoing Software development, Licensor may add, change or delete individual components or functionality in new releases. Such Software modifications shall be subject to the terms of the Agreement. If Licensee chooses not to install the most current release of the Software, the level of technical support may diminish over time.

4. Documentation

4.1 Each licensed Software includes a user's guide downloadable on www.wezarp.com.

5. Warranties, Remedies and Disclaimer

5.1 Licensor warrants it has the right to license the Software to Licensee.

5.2 Licensor warrants that each production release of the Software shall conform to its documentation including any updates thereto, and the media on which it is installed, if Licensee chooses not to receive the Software by electronic download, shall be free of software viruses when received by Licensee. As the exclusive remedy for breach of these warranties, Licensor, at its option, shall: (a) repair the Software; (b) replace the Software; or (c) terminate the Software license at issue during the then-current license period.

5.3 Licensor disclaims all other warranties, express or implied, including, but not limited to, any implied warranties of merchantability and/or fitness for a particular purpose whether alleged to arise by law, by reason of custom or usage in the trade, or by course of dealing. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Licensor does not warrant or represent that the software will result in compliance, fulfillment or conformity with laws, rules, regulations, requirements or guidelines of any governmental agency.

6. Limitations of Liability

6.1 Licensor is not liable for (a) special, incidental, indirect, consequential, punitive, or reliance damages (arising in contract, tort, or otherwise), or (b) any claim against Licensee by a third party, even if Licensor has been advised of the possibility of such damages. The maximum amount Licensee may recover for any claim relating to matters covered by this Agreement or use of the Software is limited to the license fee received from Licensee for the Software at issue during the relevant license period.

7. Indemnification

7.1 If a claim of copyright, patent, trade secret or other intellectual property rights violation is made against Licensee relating to the Software, Licensee agrees to immediately notify Licensor, allow Licensor to control the litigation or settlement of such claim, and cooperate with Licensor in the investigation, defense, and settlement thereof.

7.2 If such a claim is made or, in Licensor opinion, is likely to be made, Licensor, at its option, may modify the Software, obtain rights for Licensee to continue using the Software, or terminate the license for the Software product at issue and refund the license fee paid by Licensee. Licensee agrees to abide by Licensor's decision and, if appropriate, install a different version of the Software or stop using the Software.

8. Governing Law

8.1 This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with Principality of Andorra.

This Agreement will not be governed by the U.N. Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods.

In case of any disputes, disagreement or claim of any kind resulting from or in connection with the Agreement, including the validity of this arbitration clause or any breach or alleged breach hereof, the following procedure shall be applied:

- a. The parties shall convene a Committee of two senior managers and two legal advisers; each Party shall nominate one senior manager and one legal adviser within fifteen days of the request to appoint this Committee by one of the Parties, which must be notified by registered letter with a form for acknowledgement of receipt. This Committee shall have two months to draw up an agreement showing that the parties have agreed on a resolution to the dispute or that they remain in disagreement.

b. Where the Parties remain in disagreement, the dispute, disagreement or claim may at this point be referred to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Principality of Andorra.

Waiver by Licensor or Licensee of any condition or covenant of this Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of any other condition or covenant of this Agreement.

9. Audit

9.1 Upon fifteen (15) business days' notice to Licensee, Licensor or its designee will have the right to conduct an on-site audit during Licensee's normal business hours to verify compliance with the terms and conditions of the Agreement. Licensee shall cooperate with Licensor by: (a) making applicable records available; (b) providing copies of the records requested; and (c) directing all agents to cooperate. If the audit reveals that Licensee owes additional license fees, Licensee shall pay the amounts owed and Licensor's reasonable expenses in conducting the audit.

10. General

10.1 This Agreement, the order form to which it is attached, and any invoices relating to the Software, regardless of whether they are submitted by Appando or Appando subsidiary, set forth the entire agreement between Licensee and Appando related to the Software and supersede any purchase order, communications, and representations regarding the Software or any license included in the installation of the Software.

10.2 Any additions or modifications to this Agreement must be approved in writing signed by both parties.

10.3 Nothing in this Agreement affects any statutory rights of consumers that cannot be waived or limited by contract.
